Weather

San Juan enjoys an average temperature of 80 °F (26.6 °C) with little humidity. The city averages nearly 3,000 hours of sunshine per year.

Current weather information can be found here.

Local Attractions

Puerto Rico is rich with historic, cultural, and natural must-see sites.

Old San Juan: Designated a World Heritage Site by the United Nations, this district is not to be missed. A walking tour allows you to explore at your leisure, while a free trolley ride lets you sit and relax while it takes you around streets paved with blue cobblestones.

Castillo San Felipe del Morro: Built in 1540, this imposing citadel looms over the entrance to San Juan Bay.
Castillo San Cristobal: Finished in 1783, this is the largest fortification built in the New World by the Spanish. It originally encompassed 27 acres, encircling the city and wailing it off from intruders.

Plaza Las Américas: With over 400 shops, this is the largest shopping mall in Puerto Rico.

San Juan Museum of Art and History: Built in 1855 as a market, this building was restored in 1979 and now showcases Puerto Rican art and culture.

Parque de las Cavernas: This 268-acre park is a nature preserve featuring numerous untouched caves.

Parque de las Cavernas: This 268-acre park is a nature preserve featuring numerous untouched caves.

Jardín Botánico: Located in Rio Piedras, this botanical garden features over 200 tropical and subtropical plant species.

Piñones Reserve: Located in nearby Carolina, this reserve is a subtropical moist forest with mangroves, sea turtle nesting sites and beautiful beaches.

Bacardi Rum Plant: Take a tour of this famous distillery located across San Juan Bay in Catano.

San Juan Cathedral: This historic cathedral was originally built in 1520 and restored in 1917. It is an authentic and rare example of medieval architecture in the New World.