

3+3 Articulation Agreement Proposal
Bachelor of Science and Doctor of Physical Therapy
Between Penn State Abington and Jefferson College of Health Professions of Thomas Jefferson University

Program Description

This program is a cooperative agreement between Penn State Abington and Jefferson College of Health Professions of Thomas Jefferson University (TJU). Students can earn both the Bachelor of Science (B.S.) and Doctor of Physical Therapy (D.P.T.) degrees in six years after graduation from high school. Students will spend the first three years at Penn State Abington and then proceed to Jefferson College of Health Professions for the final three years of graduate Physical Therapy coursework. The B.S. in Science with the Life Science Option from Penn State Abington will be awarded after successful completion of the first year at Jefferson College of Health Professions. The D.P.T. degree from Thomas Jefferson University will be awarded after successful completion of the third year at Jefferson College of Health Professions.

Admission Requirements

High school students

- SAT I total score of 1200 or higher
- Class rank in the top 10%

Current Penn State Abington students

- Total earned credits hours 30 or less
- Cumulative grade point average of 3.3 or higher
- A grade of 'C' or better in all prerequisite courses for the DPT program at TJU

Application Requirements

High school students

- Submit a completed regular undergraduate Penn State admissions application by November 30
- Official high school transcripts
- Official SAT I test scores
- Personal statement
- Two letters of recommendation
- Application fee

Current Penn State Abington students

- Submit a Jefferson College of Health Professions application for admission with an endorsement/letter of recommendation from a designated Penn State Abington representative.

Admission Decisions

- Admissions decisions are made by the Penn State-Jefferson Joint Admissions Committee. A maximum of five candidates will be selected for admission per year in the following manner:
 - Review candidates who meet listed criteria
 - Select top candidates
 - Interview top candidates
 - Select students

Articulated Curriculum

- Students in this program will follow a specific 3-year curricular track at Penn State Abington that will include the prerequisite coursework needed to transfer into the DPT portion of the program at Jefferson. (See Appendices I and II)
- Credits earned during the first year at Jefferson will be counted toward the completion of Penn State Abington's B.S. degree in Science with the Life Science Option. (See Appendix III)
- Students who have completed the articulated Penn State curriculum, have a cumulative grade point average of at least a 3.0, and have earned at least a 'C' in all prerequisite coursework will transfer into the DPT portion of the program at Thomas Jefferson University.

Maintenance

- Penn State Abington shall designate a person who will serve as coordinator of the program and as advisor of students who plan to transfer to the Jefferson College of Health Professions DPT program. The coordinator will:
 - Be the responsible party for providing the Penn State Abington institutional recommendation for current students;
 - Maintain files for those Penn State Abington students who intend to transfer to the DPT program at Jefferson College of Health Professions;
- Both Penn State Abington and Jefferson College of Health Professions will assure that appropriate personnel in their respective colleges are made aware of the existence of this Agreement and are encouraged to support it. Such persons at Penn State Abington and Jefferson College of Health Professions will include:

admissions staff, career planning and placement officers, transfer coordinators, and faculty.

- Personnel from Jefferson College of Health Professions will visit Penn State Abington on a regular basis to meet with the coordinator and other appropriate faculty and administrators. Meetings with students will also be arranged, including potential candidates who intend to transfer to the Jefferson College of Health Professions DPT program as well as other students who may simply wish to seek general information.
- The faculty, staff, and administration of Penn State Abington are encouraged to visit the campus of Thomas Jefferson University.

Evaluation

To serve as a basis for evaluating the program, Jefferson College of Health Professions will provide aggregate statistical information regarding application, applicant credentials, and admissions decisions. This information will be shared with Penn State Abington.

Marketing and Recruitment

Upon administrative and curricular approval, the Penn State Abington/Jefferson College of Health Professions B.S./DPT program will be listed in the Pennsylvania State University's "Undergraduate Degree Programs Bulletin," both in paper and electronic formats. The Jefferson College of Health Professions will supply Penn State Abington with promotional literature to be used in recruiting students into the B.S./DPT Program. Promotional literature created by Jefferson College of Health Professions or Penn State Abington must be reviewed by both parties prior to distribution.

General

This agreement may only be amended, modified, or supplemented by an agreement in writing signed by the parties.

Length of Agreement

- This Agreement will continue in effect from year-to-year and will be automatically renewed annually unless terminated or amended.
- This Agreement may be terminated on June 30 of any calendar year by either institution via written notice one year in advance. All students admitted prior to termination notice will be permitted to continue in the program. The addresses to which written notice is to be sent are specified below:
