

CROSS-ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF ARMY RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS INSTRUCTION AT PENN STATE UNIVERSITY, FAYETTE CAMPUS, UNIONTOWN, PA 15401

1. Under the provisions of Public Law 88-647, and Section 2102, Title 10, United States Code, a Senior Division Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps, hereinafter referred to as Senior ROTC, unit was established at the University of Pittsburgh effective November 29, 1919. This Senior ROTC unit was established pursuant to an agreement between the governing authorities of the University of Pittsburgh, signed by Joseph A. Dutton, Vice Chancellor, on February 13, 1981, and approved for the Secretary of the Army by Ernest L. Isbell, Department of the Army, on March 19, 1981. Copies of the agreement are on file at the University of Pittsburgh and at the Department of the Army.
2. This CROSS-ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT between the University of Pittsburgh and Penn State University, Fayette Campus, is entered into pursuant to the above authorities, and Army Regulation 145-1 which authorizes the cross-enrollment of students between host Senior ROTC institutions and non-ROTC institutions.
3. Contingent upon the acceptance of this AGREEMENT, by both parties, the University of Pittsburgh agrees to the following:
 - a. To provide Senior ROTC academic instruction on the campus of the University of Pittsburgh. Such instruction will be available to all qualified students.
 - b. To provide for use in this Senior ROTC instructional program such available U.S. Government property as may be authorized by law and applicable tables of allowances.
 - c. To issue, at the expense of the U.S. Government (when authorized by the U.S. Army Cadet Command Headquarters) textbooks for students enrolled in the Senior ROTC program for courses taught by military instructors. Title to these books remains with the U.S. Government.
 - d. To provide grade reports to the Penn State University, Fayette Campus, Registrar for each student enrolled in courses taught by military instructors in accordance with the procedures and timing desired by Penn State University, Fayette Campus.

4. Contingent upon the acceptance of the above provisions, Penn State University, Fayette Campus, agrees to the following:

a. To continue as a part of its curriculum, a course of Senior ROTC instruction. This curriculum will be developed in coordination with the Professor of Military Science, PMS, at the University of Pittsburgh in accordance with current Army Regulations and directives.

b. To arrange for the scheduling of Senior ROTC (General Military Science, or GMS) courses at times agreeable to the PMS, at the University of Pittsburgh.

c. To enroll all Penn State University, Fayette Campus, students who desire to enroll in Senior ROTC and who meet the eligibility requirements for Senior ROTC enrollment as set forth in Army Regulation 145-1, and upon whose enrollment the PMS, University of Pittsburgh concurs.

d. To grant academic credit applicable towards graduation for successful completion of Senior ROTC course offered by the Department of Military Science, University of Pittsburgh.

e. To provide all mid-term and final grades of students to the Department of Military Science, University of Pittsburgh, on the same basis as provided other departments of Penn State University, Fayette Campus. The grade reports will verify continued eligibility for scholarships and to confirm quality standards for continued enrollment in the officer commissioning program.

f. To provide for the protection of all public property used in support of the Senior ROTC program and to take all reasonable measures within the power of Penn State University, Fayette Campus, to recover U.S. Government property which is improperly in the hands of students or former students, which may include withholding transcripts of grades or certificates of graduation upon request of the PMS, University of Pittsburgh.

5. It is mutually understood and agreed as follows:

a. The PMS, University of Pittsburgh, will issue, at the expense of the U.S. Government when authorized by the U.S. Army Cadet Command Headquarters, to all students enrolled in Senior ROTC, uniforms, textbooks, and other equipment necessary for the conduct of Senior ROTC instruction. Title to issued property remains with the U.S. Government. Students are required to return issued property in clean and serviceable condition upon completion of the course.

b. The PMS, University of Pittsburgh, will provide the opportunity for Penn State University, Fayette Campus, Senior ROTC cadets to participate in extracurricular training in conjunction with the University of Pittsburgh's Senior ROTC program.

c. This AGREEMENT shall become effective when approved and signed by the appropriate authorities at each institution and approved by the First Region Headquarters, U.S. Army Cadet Command.

d. Final authority to conduct Senior ROTC instruction for Penn State University, Fayette Campus, is vested in the First Region Commander.

e. Penn State University, Fayette Campus, students will have equal opportunity with the University of Pittsburgh students to compete for Senior ROTC scholarships.

f. This AGREEMENT may be terminated upon giving written notice of such intent by either party concerned, one academic year prior to the actual termination.
