“The IT Shares brown bag series is an economical and convenient way to build relationships and learn about a new topic over lunch! We are privileged to have experienced colleagues among us who can share their knowledge and experiences.”
- Debbie Pepple
Telecommunication and Networking Services

“With the support of my mentor and the goals that were developed as a result of our time together, I was able to uncover many more strengths and skills I had that weren’t being utilized to the fullest potential and in some cases were not being utilized at all.”
- Tracy Magda Penn State Berks
