5. Election of Members to the Board of Directors: Agricultural Law Resource and Reference Center, The Dickinson School of Law of The Pennsylvania State University

The Agricultural Law Resource and Reference Center was established in 1998, following the July 1, 1997, affiliation of The Dickinson School of Law with The Pennsylvania State University. The Center is a collaboration between Penn State's Dickinson School of Law and the College of Agricultural Sciences and is funded, in part, by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. The Center is designed to provide the highest-quality educational programs, information, and materials to those involved or interested in the agricultural industry.

The Board of Directors of the Center is comprised of: the Secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture; the Dean of the Dickinson School of Law; the Dean of the College of Agricultural Sciences; the chairman and the minority chairman of the Agriculture and Rural Affairs Committee of the Senate (or their designees); the chairman and the minority chairman of the Agriculture and Rural Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives (or their designees); two members of the Board of Trustees of The Pennsylvania State University who serve by virtue of election; and the vice president who serves as director for cooperative extension at The Pennsylvania State University. In addition, the Board includes the following members appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture: three representatives of production agriculture, one of whom must be a direct marketer; one agricultural processor; one representative of an agribusiness who must have experience with producer contracts; and one attorney with expertise in agricultural law.

In 2005, the Board of Trustees elected Trustees Keith W. Eckel and Walter N. Peechatka to serve as directors for one-year terms. As their terms have expired, it is desirable to reelect Keith W. Eckel and Walter N. Peechatka as directors for one-year terms.

Will the Board of Trustees of The Pennsylvania State University adopt the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees elects Trustee Keith W. Eckel and Trustee Walter N. Peechatka to serve on the Board of Directors of the Agricultural Law Resource and Reference Center of The Dickinson School of Law of The Pennsylvania State University.
