

1. Informational Report on the Student Activity Fee's Impact on Campus Life

Dr. Vicky L. Triponey, Vice President for Student Affairs, will lead a panel discussion focused on the significant student life enhancements that have been made possible at Penn State by the Student Activity Fee. Topics will include a brief history of the Student Activity Fee at Penn State, examples of the high-impact programs funded by the fee, and a briefing on recent efforts to maximize the resources committed to support and enhance student activities at all Penn State campuses. Panelists will include students who have been engaged in recent efforts: Keyur Shah, former chair of University Park Allocation Committee (UPAC), and Jerry "J.J." Livingston, president of the Council of Commonwealth Student Government (CCSG).
